

Modern Trends in Health Economics, Healthcare and Technologies

Pre-Conference Workshop

Leading from Margins:

A Proactive Approach to Our Health and Wellness

MR. ADRIAN COLOMER WINTER

CEO, Productos agrícolas del alto Piura

THURSDAY & FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 21-22, 2019

9:00 AM – 5:00 PM | Piura, Peru

ABOUT DR. ADRIAN COLOMER WINTER

Adrian Colomer Winter is the CEO of Productos agrícolas del alto Piura (Agricultural products of the high Piura) and working under the project "Introduction of a preenzymatic treatment and a rapid vacuum cooking system for the reduction of 50% acrylamide in carob syrup, and exportation to the German market".

ABOUT THE WORKSHOP:

The main aim of the conference is to move a step ahead to improve the current healthcare system.

- Learn more about the lesser known healthcare advancements
- Hear about the strategies that are in place to overcome the challenges and improved outcomes
- Gain an insight into the insights of public and the negative impacts on healthcare
- Benefit from a greater understanding of the importance of connectivity and its influence on promoting healthcare communities
- Understand more about gambling addiction, its wide-reaching impact and the latest measures to help tackle the problem
- Listen to examples of how healthcare to develop or make products
- Explore the prevalence of healthcare system and its relationship with the world

Participants will avail 20% discount on registration prices for "Modern Trends in Health Economics, Healthcare and Technologies" May 20-22, 2019, Venice, Italy.

<https://www.longdom.com/healthconomics>

+1 410-695-9109